

Q1 What is working?

Answered: 15 Skipped: 0

Speakers and brainstorming together.

Our FYSPRT is open and welcoming. No ideas or comments are turned away and all are valued. We highly value input from families and the kiddos enrolled in WISe and try to seek that out.

Virtual meetings

good information and good conversation

zoom meetings

day and time of meeting & hybrid format

The time and date still work for my schedule.

Shared information

I like the format with a presenter of community services going first so there is a lot of time for questions.

Having virtual meeting spaces. Rural community members struggle to come into Spokane for meetings.

Great conversation

Great topics

Great Presentation

Hearing updates and new programs

Good dialog and feedback from others on line.

Q2 What could we do better?

I wish everything wasn't always some drawn out PowerPoint.

Everything is working well.

Continue to reach out to the rural communities/providers to attend FYSPRT. Could a gift card be an enticement for families to attend?

Youth and parents participation

I like the idea of including more families or WISe providers that can share input from the families

The format is informative/relevant for me!

Having more youth attending!

Nothing

More parent participation

Nothing, I really enjoy it.

Would like to get a resource book if possible. Lots of good things, like the resource today, but it would be nice to have a central place for all the resources.

Q3 Thoughts/items for next meeting and/or agenda. . . .if you are comfortable, please leave your name/contact info so we can connect with you if we have questions.

Possibly a BH-ASO CLIP person speak about the process at an understandable level. HCA CLIP administration bring ideas and understanding about how to best meet the needs of families and kiddos with complex needs.

Emily Program presentation and discussion on how to reach youth.

The Emily Program-presentation on services for youth

Having The Emily Program present. Having Special Mobility Services present.
